

Social and Personal.

THE date for the annual State convention of the Virginia Division, United Daughters of the Confederacy, to be held this year in Lexington, Va., with the Mary Custis Lee Chapter as hostess, is announced for October 6.

A large delegation will go from the Richmond Chapter.

Miss Laylander's Engagement.
An engagement just announced of special interest here is that of Miss Helen Laylander, of Newport News, to John Henry Lofland, also of that city. Miss Laylander is a beautiful girl, one of Newport News's most popular members of the younger social set, and is well remembered in Richmond, where she has a number of friends.

She was a graduate of the Woman's College here in the class of 1907, and has taken an active part in the social life of the Peninsula since then.

Miss Laylander is the niece of Dr. and Mrs. James Kennedy Cross, of 3210 West Avenue, Newport News, and has made her home with them since childhood. Her marriage to Mr. Lofland will be celebrated in the fall.

Mrs. Buford to Appoint Committee.
Members of the Audubon Society and their friends and those interested in the splendid work which they are doing, will view with much pleasure the exhibit which the society is to make at the State Fair.

Space has been reserved for the Audubon exhibit in the Agricultural Building, and the exhibit will be quite unique in that there will be birds and their many varieties of nests, and a number of pictures in colors to show the beauties of the natural plumage.

Mrs. A. S. Buford will appoint a committee of ladies to be in charge each day to receive callers at the booth, and much interest is felt in the work of these Richmond women.

Mrs. Moses D. Hoge, president of the Audubon Society in the State of Virginia, is most enthusiastic over what the society accomplished last winter and their future plans. Since leaving her Grace Street home early in the summer for her new residence, near the pump house, Mrs. Hoge has discovered in their immediate vicinity over forty varieties of birds by their various calls and habits.

Return from Thousand Islands.
Mr. and Mrs. Hunsdon Cary have returned to their home, on West Grace Street, accompanied by Mrs. Cary's sister, Miss Miller, of Albany. The Carys have been visiting in the summer home of Mr. and Mrs. Miller, at Thousand Islands, and had altogether a delightful trip in the North.

Gray-Adkins.
An engagement just announced is that of Miss Alice Urquhart Adkins, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Waverly, to Alexander Trent Gray, the wedding to take place in the early fall.

Ball-Gray.
Mr. and Mrs. Horace Lucien Gray, of Park View, Norfolk, announce the engagement of their daughter, Julia Frances, to George Mootter Ball, of Newport, Ky.

The wedding, which will take place in the early winter, will unite two of the oldest families in Virginia and Kentucky. Miss Gray being a direct descendant of the Custis family, while Mr. Ball is a direct descendant of Mary Ball and closely related to the Montgomerie and Bells of Kentucky.

Hetzer-Sheffield.
A quiet, but very pretty marriage was solemnized last week in Park Place Methodist Church, when Miss Hazel Sheffield became the bride of William E. Hetzer. Rev. J. B. Moss officiated. The bride was attired in a traveling suit of blue and carried a bouquet of white flowers.

She was attended by Miss Helen McCartney, as maid of honor, and Misses Emily Bobbitt and Minnie Hetzer as bridesmaids. Louis Boschen, Oscar Lohman, Rudolph Hetzer and George Wrenn were ushers.

Mr. and Mrs. Hetzer have been spending their honeymoon in the North.
